Private Club Profile

Mayacama Golf Club, Santa Rosa

LOCATED JUST AN HOUR NORTH OF THE GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE, Mayacama provides the perfect retreat from the hustle and bustle of the Bay Area.

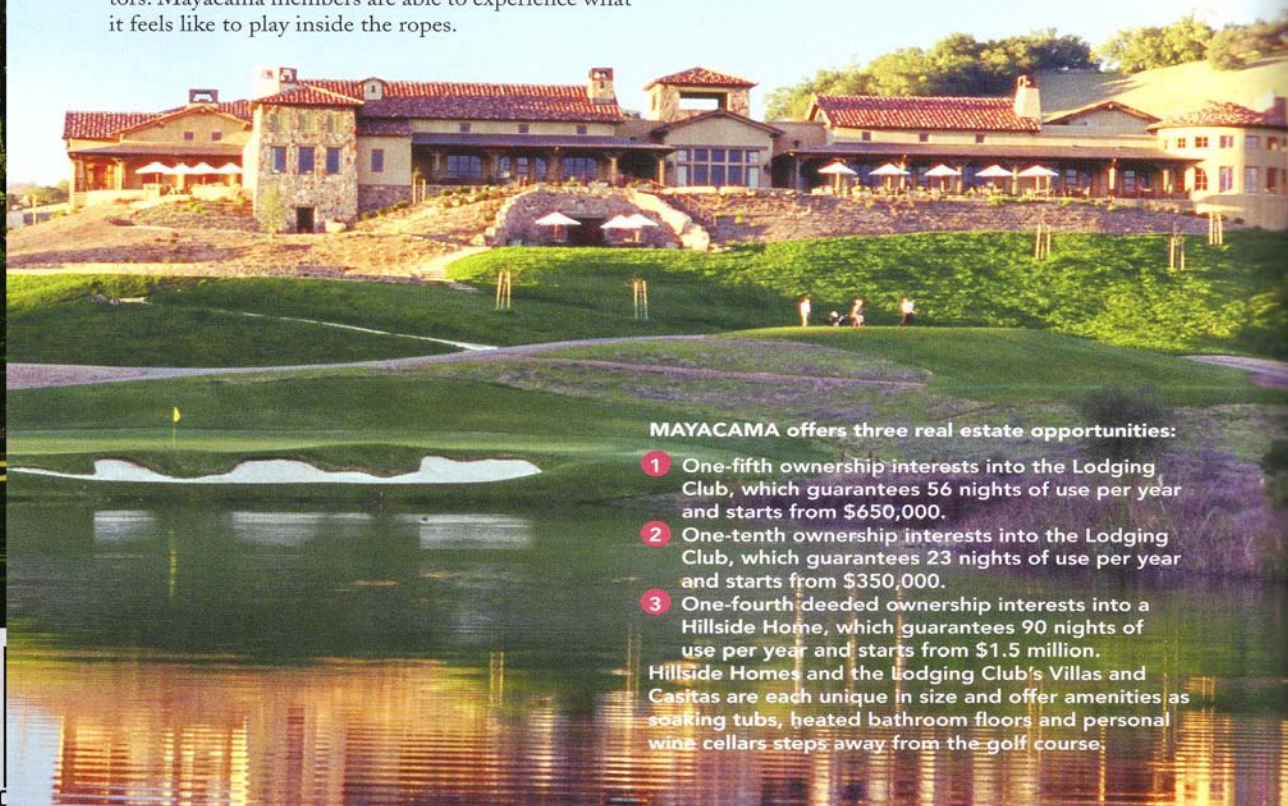

Jack Nicklaus took advantage of 675 acres of natural beauty to create a championship golf course traversed by creeks, wetlands and oak trees. It took virtually no time for the 6,787-yard layout to crack the Top 100 rankings.

While less than 10 years old, the club prides itself on tradition. Tee times are not required and the caddie program provides assistance on the walking-only course. The more than 450 members are treated to major championship-like conditions during the various club tournaments. Every participant is announced on the first tee and the champion is presented with the trophy on the concluding green with an opportunity to address spectators. Mayacama members are able to experience what it feels like to play inside the ropes.

The golf is matched by the amenities of the 40,000-square-foot Tuscan clubhouse. Each member has his or her own private temperature-controlled wine locker. The wine cellar has a patio that overlooks the 18th green, so a glass of wine is never far away (members can also buy wine by the glass at the turn). Thirty-one vintners donate a barrel of wine annually making for some lively club events and dinners.

Membership is invitation-only and Mayacama offers charter and national (residence must be 150 miles from the club) golf memberships as well as social memberships. The cost to join are as follows: Charter-$250,000, National-$150,000 and Social-$65,000. ♣
